DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1, 2, 11, and 12-16 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 11, 12, and 14-16 of U.S. Patent No. 7,044,975 in view of Henssge et al. (U.S. Pat. No. 5,047,060). US Pat. No. 7,044,975 does not disclose a shaft with a tapered mid-section and a distal end with a rounded tip. However, Henssge et al. teaches a hip joint prosthesis with these features as shown in Figures 1-3 and columns 1 and 2. It is well-known in the art to use this type of shape for a joint prosthetic shaft as it better fits the natural bone's anatomy and requires less bone to be removed from the patient to implant the prosthesis. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to include a shaft with a tapered mid-section and a distal end with a rounded tip in order to it better fit the natural bone's anatomy and remove less bone from the patient to implant the prosthesis.

Claim Objections

Claims 3-10 and 17-30 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see the response to the non-final office action, filed 1/30/2009, with respect to the Schelhas reference and the provisional double patenting rejection under Application No. 10/605322 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of these claims has been withdrawn.

Applicant's arguments filed 1/20/2009, with respect to the double patenting rejection under US Pat. No. 7,044,975 in view of US Pat. No. 5,047,060 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The Applicant has stated several deficiencies that are associated with a shaft having a tapered mid-section and a rounded end. However, at the time the invention was made, this kind of shape was regularly used in hip joint prosthesis because it better fits the natural bone's anatomy and requires less bone to be removed from the patient to implant the prosthesis. The examiner maintains that the implementation of a tapered, rounded shaft into the device of US Pat. No. 7,044,975 would have been an obvious modification to those having ordinary skill in the art because of the shape's regular and frequent use in the devices of the prior art.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
